

Certificate of Member Accreditation

THE ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH INVESTIGATORS

This is to Certify that

Bob Carrigan -- F/1650

Is a Member of The Association of British Investigators and has satisfied the following requirements

- In depth vetting to include financial probity and annual criminality check
- Is Data Protection Registered and Notified
- Demonstrated during examination competence and knowledge of laws, procedures and rules which apply to "members field of operations"
- Holds a current certificate of Professional Indemnity Insurance

As a member of The Association, the above is required to adhere to the strict Code of Ethics and Professional Standards (see: www.theabi.org.uk/about-the-association/code-of-ethics); a breach of which can result in disciplinary action and possible expulsion.

Valid to: 31st January 2012

To confirm the authenticity or currency of this certificate of membership, you are advised to contact the General Secretary on 01253 297 502 or email: info@theabi.org.uk

Tony Imossi
President, The Association of British Investigators

04 November 2011

"The Association of British Investigators is sector exclusively accredited by The Drivers & Vehicle Licensing Agency, The Law Society of England & Wales and The Law Society of Scotland, each endorse The Association recognising the extent to which The Association has gone to protect members' clients including many law practitioners".